

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

As the year ends, we think about all we are grateful for. Our relationship with you is one thing we treasure. Thank you for the opportunity to know you and to recognize all of your volunteer efforts in our communities.

*This Christmas, we wish you all the best gifts in life -
The gift of happiness; the gift of love; the gift of peace.*

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

RSVP

Maybe because of the time of year, maybe because I am older and notice these things more, but there are so many things for which to be thankful.

In January our tax volunteers will spend 2 weeks at the Gadsden Public Library Computer Lab, getting ready to prepare federal and state returns for free. I'm thankful for all of our partner agencies who freely give of their space and resources so that we can do what we do better!

In November we sent out a request for people to 'adopt 99 seniors who were experiencing a hard time and get them a Christmas present. I'm thankful for all the people and businesses who responded and adopted each and every one of those angels!

But most of all I am thankful for our wonderful volunteers, who give of their time and talents every day and whenever we call on them for special assignments (there were 21 'special assignments' in 2016!)

You are my sunshine!

Volunteer Recognition

Ms. Patsy Duck & Mrs. Gerrie Jordan are wonderful, dedicated volunteers. They work very hard at advancing God's Kingdom in their work at the Etowah Baptist Mission Center – Patsy at the front desk checking people in for assistance & Gerrie interviewing clients and performing financial counseling with them. We are so blessed to have these two ladies as part of our Missions Team!

Submitted by Ashley Baccus, Asst. Director of the Etowah Baptist Missions Center

The winner of our on time – time sheet drawing is Ms. Pat Trotter. Ms. Trotter has been a volunteer with RSVP since 2006 at Cherokee County Health & Rehab in Centre. Helen has 1,422 hours on record! Thank you Ms. Trotter for all of your volunteer service!
